FRED LEACH
English, Social Studies,
Mathematics

Practicing the "psychological approach" and accompanied by his reference book and constant pleas for silence, he won a solid place among us.

MARIO CATINELLA
Latin, French

Our Italian import, with his most interesting accent, certainly added zest and life to our Foreign Language Department.

ARTHUR NELSON
Science, Mathematics

With his multitude of funny quotations and serious advice that often hit home, he proved a true friend to all.

ARTHUR DANIELSON
Superintendent of Schools

We were glad to extend a sincere welcome to our new superintendent, an able administrator and a leader of great integrity, who diligently aspires to make the Manchester school system one of the best.

EDWARD FIELD
English, Social Studies

A terrific new coach with a bashful grin, he worked wonders with his first football squad which gave a top performance.

NATHAN PURPEL
English, Social Studies

We loved his subtle sense of humor and will remember his advice to "stay very, very calm."

UPON THEIR ABILITY

Our faculty have labored long and hard to impart to us knowledge and truth. They have exerted an enduring influence that we will carry with us throughout our lives.

NATALIE GENEWICH
Business

The charming and efficient member of the faculty, who is forever racing around school trying to catch up with members of the yearbook staff.

MILBURN DIXON
Science, Mathematics

We will always remember his fatherly concern, grave advice, rare sense of humor, and favorite saying, "I mean it people."

DANA DREW
Principal

During the short time he has been with us, he has proved an understanding leader, counselor, and friend, with many new ideas for extra-curricular activities.

DOROTHY SJORLUND
Physical Education

With a combination of perseverance and boundless energy, in class and on the athletic field, she has taught us the ideals of fair play and good sportsmanship.

RAY AUSTIN
Mechanical Drawing, Shop

A quiet giant with a twinkle in his eyes, he rates tops as a teacher and friend.

JOSEPH HYLAND
Physical Education

A molder of youthful personality, he exemplifies all those qualities of a true sportsman.

OUR FUTURE DEPENDS

He is wise who can instruct us and assist us in the business of daily virtuous living.

Carlyle

CHARLOTTE MORONG
Home Economics

She does a great deal to help develop future homemakers with her ingenious ideas and suggestions.

JANE O'BRIEN
Music

Our glee clubs, which provided much enjoyable and entertaining music, owe their success to the untiring efforts and patience of Miss O'Brien.

CONSTANCE ZIMMERMAN
Art

Her own creative ability and pleasing personality play a large part in the discovery and development of hidden artistic talent.

JUNIORS

FIRST ROW: J. Snow, P. Dalton, A. Willmonton, C. Adams, J. Carroll, M. Diamond, A. Lee, K. Bergendahl, D. Troy. SECOND ROW: S. Jorgensen, L. Kehoe, S. Butler, J. Knowles, A. McCoy, F. Saco, H. Goldthwaite, L. McDonough, Mr. Nelson. THIRD ROW: B. Bullock, W. Barnett, R. Wetterlow, L. Gates, M. Jorgensen, D. Curran, K. Crane.

M. Diamond, Vice-President; D. Curran, President; J. Carroll, Secretary; R. Wetterlow, Treasurer.

The junior year is generally one of the most hectic for students, and it proved to be no exception for the class of 1958. The juniors tackled with zest and enthusiasm all projects and activities.

A junior varsity cheering squad was organized for the first time to cheer at junior varsity games. The squad included Linda Kehoe, Suzanne Butler, Priscilla Dalton, Suzanne Jorgensen, Ann Willmonton, and Lucille McDonough. They should be experienced veterans by the time the 1957-58 season rolls around.

Another first this year was a magazine subscription drive to raise funds to help defray the cost of the yearbook. The juniors, under the direction of Dan Curran and Myrna Diamond, class managers, came out on top with total sales amounting to $413.28. An ice cream party, a striped cat named "Elvis," and individual prizes were their reward. Dorothy Troy was top salesman followed closely by Harriett Goldthwaite, Kerry Crane, and Bill Barnett.

The juniors also proved star athletes. Rick Wetterlow, Lee Gates, Artie McCoy, and Paul Radack took the honors in football. Lee Gates, Rick Wetterlow, Frank Saco, Paul Radack, Kerry Crane, and Bill Barnett ably represented the class in basketball.

Kerry Crane, a member of the National Honor Society, received high honors for the first term, and Dorothy Troy, Janice Carroll, Bill Barnett, Harriett Goldthwaite, and David Olson were on the honor roll.

Most of the junior girls are participating in the intramural program and are building up points in anticipation of the awards at the Sports' Night Supper.

Many enrolled in Mr. Dixon's driver training class and on a pleasant day these future drivers can be seen practicing in the family car.

Class reporter, Priscilla Dalton, reports any worthy news scoops to the office for publication in the local newspapers.

The major social event of the year, the Junior Prom, was the successful product of junior work and ingenuity.

It has been a good year for the class of '58, full of hard work and fun.

SOPHOMORES

R. Doane, Treasurer; P. Tilton, President; M. Emslie, Vice-President; S. Emerton, Secretary.

FIRST ROW: J. Dermody, L. Linsky, L. Brissette, C. Bullock, L. Forss, K. Dorting, B. Durgin, P. Lee, R. Bennett, J. Metall. SECOND ROW: L. MacWhinnie, P. Kaiser, A. MacNeil, M. Lane, D. Latons, S. Emerton, A. McDonough, M. Emslie, S. Drew, J. Johnson, B. Chaulk, C. Eyberse, Mr. Field. THIRD ROW: T. Carroll, R. Lysiak, W. Burgess, W. Laskowski, P. Tilton, R. Doane, F. Wood. FOURTH ROW: W. Nelson, C. Clapp, S. McAllister, T. Mercer, J. Carroll, E. Gilfillan. W. Croft.

The sophomore class has been one of the most active in school. They are well represented in all activities at Story. Their honor roll, which includes Mary Ford, Suzanne Drew, Philip Tilton, and Roberta Bennett, shows they are good students too.

Wesley Burgess, Cushman Clapp, Sam McAllister, Bill Croft, and Dick Lysiak are out for basketball, while Bill Nelson, Tom Mercer, and Bill Laskowski have proved themselves good enough to sub on the first string. Phil Tilton capably handles our new score board.

Phil Tilton, Tinker Doane, Dick Lysiak, and Tom Mercer (who was disabled earlier in the season), were out for football. Lucky enough to see a good deal of action with the Story Six were Bill Laskowski, Cushman Clapp, and Bill Nelson. Tom Carroll helped manage the six.

Although our baseball team had a discouraging season last year, Bill Laskowski, Phil Tilton, Tom Carroll, Wesley Burgess, and Tom Mercer appreciated the practice it gave them for the spring of '57.

In the magazine subscription drive, Mary Emslie, who sold $31.50 worth of magazines, and Pat Lee, who sold $33 worth, ranked among the top salesmen in the school. The class total was $278.50.

Treasurer Robert Doane reports a treasury balance of $75. With dues of 25 cents a month, this ought to increase rapidly.

Cushman Clapp and Bill Croft were the class reporters and kept the office well informed of many sophomore activities.

Most of the girls took part in the Intramural Program and several proved outstanding in basketball. Pat Kaiser was one of the leading scorers and Pat Lee won the free throw contest.

This class is a well-rounded one with a variety of interests which permeate many fields. One does not have to be a crystal ball gazer to prophesy a very successful year for our sophomore friends.

Freshmen

FIRST ROW: J. Hinkley, M. Cronin, J. Kinney, L. Jorgensen, J. Lazisky, M. Imbeault, G. Pepper, M. Knox, J. Harvey, S. Mollison, C. Winsten. SECOND ROW: Mr. Catinella, R. Drew, B. Clapp, M. Parady, V. Olson, C. Radack, C. Ridley, E. Jennings, B. Bradley, J. Christinsen, B. Crocker, N. Manning, C. MacNeil, J. Frey, V. Burbank, Mr. Leach. THIRD ROW: S. Crane, D. George, W. Reed, R. Burgess, D. Curran, W. Hatcher, W. Jackman. FOURTH ROW: T. Manning, P. Dalton, S. Larson, W. Van-Bushkirk, D. LaFreniere, D. Cammett, F. James, W. Corley, K. Billings, J. Aldrich

M. Imbeault, Student Council Representative; D. Cammett, President; C. Radack, Vice-President; C. Ridley, Treasurer; C. MacNeil, Secretary.

Forty frisky freshmen joined the ranks of Story in September and very soon became full-fledged members of the school.

They showed a great deal of enthusiasm and were most eager to participate in all school functions. Ken Billings, Dave Cammett, Bill Corley, Dave Curran, Fran James, and Dennis George went out for football. Steve Crane, Dave Curran, Bill Corley, Dave Cammett, Bob Dion, Dennis George, and Bill Hatcher went out for basketball. Many of these fellows are regular second stringers.

Ted Manning proved to be a reliable assistant manager for football and basketball.

Many girls took part in the Intramural Program. Jean Anderson and Bonny Clapp were on the winning JCC's basketball team.

The freshmen also did their part in defraying the expenses of the yearbook. Competition for the magazine subscription prizes reached fever pitch with the freshmen running a close second to the junior class. Mary Ellen Knox, Jean Kinney, Peter Dalton, and Nancy Manning were among the top fifteen salesmen who won attractive prizes.

Scholastically the freshmen did very well the first quarter with Nancy Manning, Judy Christiansen, Jean Kinney, and Evelyn Jennings on the high honor roll and Rebecca Drew, Mary Ellen Knox, Cynthia Radack, and Stephen Crane on the honor roll.

We understand that the class of 1960 will be the richest to graduate from Story. They are charging 50 cents a month dues and are doing a good job of collecting it.

At the November meeting of the Parent Teachers Association, Mr. Leach's class won the attendance banner. This meant that in proportion to the number in a class there were more parents from that class than from any other.

Story's new citizens have fitted well into school life and promise to be leaders in the years ahead.

ACTIVITIES

Tucks Point

"THE REMARKABLE INCIDENT AT CARSON CORNERS"

On Friday evening, April 6, 1956, the curtain rose on a tense drama of mystery and suspense. The play was a dramatic story of a trial put on by the students of Carson Corners High School who were attempting to convict the school janitor of negligence, which resulted in the death of one of their classmates, Bill McGinnis. The audience was held in suspense from the moment the curtain rose till the final dramatic and unexpected ending.

Behind the scenes, stage managers Maric Barrier and Susan Cole were all set to cue, while Kay Brown, in charge of props, was setting up the very effective flash backs. The stage crew, under Don Towle's direction, and the wardrobe committee directed by Agnes Burgess, both did commendable jobs. Thanks to Anne Guenet, publicity director, the auditorium was filled to capacity. Sheila Emslie, with the help of members of the Manchester Players, did a most remarkable job of transforming Story students into citizens of Carson Corners.

The cast and crew did a terrific job and special thanks and congratulations are due Mr. Fred Nickless, the very capable and hard-working director.

Last minute instructions are given by director, Fred Nickless, to Sam Tsoutsanis and Dave Crane.

GRADUATION AND RECEPTION CLASS OF 1956

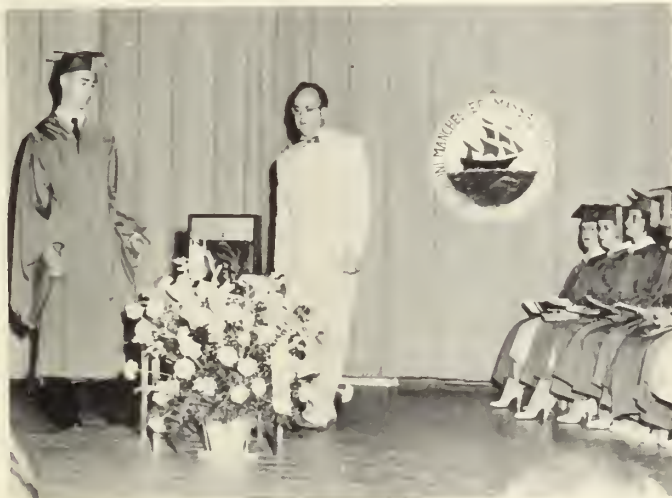

Graduation exercises for the class of 1956 took place at the Memorial School on June 15. Lynne Chapman played the processional and William Melvin, marshal, led the graduates into the auditorium. The invocation was given by Reverend David McDonald and then a selection was sung by the Glee Club. Essays with the theme, "Let's be Positive," were delivered by honor students Donald Gorton, Agnes Burgess, and Anne Guenet.

An inspiring address was delivered by Mr. H. Russell Beatty, President of Wentworth Institute. This was followed by another selection by the Glee Club and the presentation of diplomas by Mr. F. Corning Kenly, chairman of the School Committee. Mr. Ervin A. Arbo, principal, presented awards to Donald Gorton, Katherine Brown, William James, Agnes Burgess, and Harland Knox.

As a grand finale, the seniors sang their class song and benediction was given by Reverend C. Jerrold Snell. The exercises closed on a most impressive graduation with the singing of the Manchester Hymn.

Donald Gorton, valedictorian, delivering his address.

On behalf of the class of 1956, Bill James presents a voltmeter to Story High.

The last, long march marks the official end of high school days for the class of 1956.

JUNIOR PROM

Stardust, spangles, and laughter dominated the Memorial School gym on the night of the junior prom, November 16, 1956. After the grand march, which was led by Mr. & Mrs. Charles Clapp, the young ladies in their formal gowns escorted by gentlemen dressed in their Sunday best, passed through the receiving line to greet their chaperones.

Everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of Allie's orchestra. The stardust theme was carried out by a blue and white backdrop of lattice work sprinkled with silver stars. Decorated tables lined the sides of the gym.

Thanks to members of the faculty, many reluctant and shy males of Story finally worked up enough courage to invite the ladies of their choice. Junior class advisor, Mr. Nelson, gave much time and encouragement to the proceedings, so that the evening turned out to be a very happy and memorable one for those fortunate enough to attend.

MIXED CHORUS

The first formal concert of the Glee Club for the 1956-57 season was given at the December meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association by the Mixed Glee Club. A new organization in the school, the Mixed Glee Club has proved to be a great success. Many of the boys have shown a great deal of talent and enthusiasm and have spent many enjoyable hours rehearsing.

The Girls' Chorus made its initial appearance at the annual Christmas Concert presented just before the start of the holiday vacation. This fine program of Christmas music was enjoyed by the capacity crowd which attended.

Rehearsals are held once a week under the capable direction of Miss Jane O'Brien, Director of Music. The Glee Clubs practice many different types of songs but seem to enjoy singing Negro spirituals best.

We all look forward to hearing more from both groups in the future.

Hard work, co-operation, diligence are essential to the publication of any yearbook. The STORY staff began work early in September and continued their labors until the yearbook went to press in February. Their prime objective throughout these long months was to make this the best yearbook ever produced at Story. The result you see today--a book of recollections that will be a permanent reminder of your happy student days at Story High School. The staff hopes you enjoy it for many years to come.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Kerry Crane, Joanne Manning, Philip Tilton

The National Honor Society is an organization composed of high school students who have distinguished themselves academically and have displayed in school qualities worthy of recognition and encouragement. Students are elected each year by members of the faculty.

The names of those elected are sent to the national headquarters in Washington, D.C. where they are engraved on scrolls. A list of all the members is also sent to each of the 48 states. The National Honor Society strives to recognize and encourage outstanding traits of leadership, scholarship, service, and character, and it is a great honor to be a member. Story is proud of its three National Honor Society members.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Representatives

Freshmen - David Cammett, Marcia Imbeault

Sophomores - Thomas Mercer, Philip Tilton

Juniors - Daniel Curran, Paul Radack

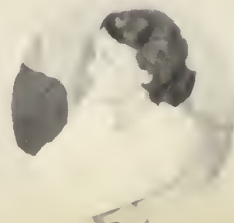

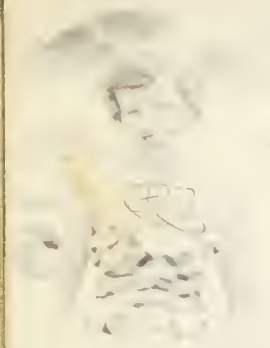

Seniors - Thomas Andrews, Stephen Clarke, Beverly Walker

The Student Council, the student governing body, is composed of the class presidents, one representative from each of the lower classes, and two representatives from the senior class. Each class elects its representatives at the annual election of class officers for a term of one year.

With Mr. Drew as their advisor, the Council sponsored many victory football and basketball dances and a magazine drive to raise funds for the yearbook, which was a great success. They manage the student activity fund and discuss any current problems in school. The members express the views of their respective classes and in this way are able to apply the principles of democratic government to their school life.

SMASHING STORY SEXTET

Co-Champions of Eastern Massachusetts

Story opened its 1956-57 season on September 22 against Lancaster. Bill Laskowski and Lee Gates each scored two touchdowns, and Story was off to a flying start with a 40-20 win.

Traveling 53 miles on the 29th, Story played Bromfield High of Harvard on the hottest day of the football season. Wayne Floyd, Don Cammett, and Cush Clapp were unable to play because of injuries. The inexperienced reserves put up a good fight but came out on the tail end of a 31-0 score.

A good Essex Aggie team journeyed to Manchester on October 6 to lose a close game 27-21. Bill Melvin made a 70-yard run in the second quarter, and Lee Gates plowed over for the first Story touchdown.

Story bowled over the visiting Perley High team from Georgetown on Friday, October 12. Bill Nelson, playing quarterback, alternated with Lee Gates and Bill Melvin on drives down the field and through the line. Rick Wetterlow scored twice on neat passes from Bill Melvin, and Curt Torrey streaked through for a touchdown in the second half. Bill Laskowski thrilled the crowd with a 62-yard run and touchdown making Story the victor, 32-6.

Story played a visiting Cambridge High team from Weston on October 20. The opponents didn't score against the Green Hornets until halfway through the third quarter. Melvin, Nelson, Wetterlow, and Captain Cammett moved the ball down the field again and again ending with three touchdowns by Bill Melvin, and one each for Rick Wetterlow, Lee Gates, and Artie McCoy. Final score--39-16.

At Topsfield on October 27, Story met a favored Topsfield team in the most thrilling game of the season. Don Cammett and Lee Gates brought the ball down the field and Rick Wetterlow scored on a good pass from Bill Nelson. Lee Gates charged over for the point that won the game. None of the 200-odd Story fans were disappointed with this action-packed game that ended in Story's favor, 7-6.

Story went to Hamilton on a bitterly cold November 10 to close their football season. The highly-publicized game featured a favored Story squad and a relatively inexperienced Hamilton team. In the first quarter Bill Melvin scored two touchdowns and an extra point, followed by another in the second quarter. With a short time remaining, Lee Gates scored a touchdown and closed this final game with the winning score of 26-18.

Coach Ed Field and his capable assistant, Arthur Nelson, built this football club into one of the biggest in recent years, and certainly the best since the New England championship club of 1949. Tom Mercer, the biggest man on the squad, was out of action all season because of a leg injury, and Wayne Floyd, a starring regular, was out with a broken bone in his foot and a dislocated shoulder. Cush Clapp missed a game, and Captain Cammett was out of service the day of the Harvard disaster because of a strained tendon.

Despite all these injuries, Story ended a very successful 1956 football season with a record of six wins and one loss as the Co-Champions of the Eastern Massachusetts Six-Man Football League.

Floyd, L. Gates, B. Melvin, P. Radack.

Our boys didn't hit if off so well at the beginning, losing the first two games to Georgetown and St. Jean's. Story really started to click in the third game of the season, when they defeated St. Jean's in a return match.

Regular Cape Ann League competition began in January with St. Ann's, but though Story put up a good fight, they were unable to defeat this powerful team.

Story won five of the ten League games played in January and February and were eagerly looking forward to the final game with Hamilton as this was being written.

Wayne Floyd and Paul Radack were top scorers, and Curt Torrey and Tom Mercer were the players who showed the greatest improvement over last year. On February 21, Captain Wayne Floyd and Paul Radack were to represent Story in the All-Star Game at Ipswich.

Story is holding down third place in the Cape Ann League, with a final game to be played, as the Storybook goes to press.
